

Workshop on improving the socio-economic impact of NWP data

28 February – 1 March 2017

Programme

Tuesday 28 February

13:30-13:35	Welcome and housekeeping	Erik Andersson (ECMWF)
13:35-14:00	The public sector information directive at work: Make open, make available	Kristin Lyng (Norwegian Meteorological Institute)
14:00-14:25	WMO and the vision for WIS-2	Matteo dell'Aqua (Météo France) presented by Baudouin Raoult (ECMWF)
14:25-14:50	The Copernicus full, free and open data policy	Peter Breger (European Commission)
14:50-15:20	Coffee break
15:20-15:45	State of the meteorological market	Alex Longden (Met Office)
15:45-16:10	The evolution of the ECOMET one-stop shop	Willie McCairns (ECOMET)
16:10-16:35	The future of Data Services	Fabio Venuti (ECMWF)
16:35-17:30	Group discussions

Wednesday 1 March

09:00-09:25	Understanding the economic benefits of NWP	Daniel Kull (World Bank)
09:25-09:50	The NOAA Big Data project: vision and approach	Andy Bailey (NOAA/NWS)
09:50-10:15	Evolution of the EUMETSAT Data Services strategy	Lothar Wolf (EUMETSAT)
10:15-10:45	Coffee break
10:45-11:10	Private-sector perspectives on improving the socio-economic impact of weather data	Dennis Schulze (PRIMET)
11:10-11:35	Drawing from the experience of Helix Nebula: collaboration between private sector and data providers in the scientific domain	Wolfgang Lengert (ESA)
11:35- 12:30	Wrap-up	